If you could have one superpower, what would it be and why?

Connect

1. What is something you are looking forward to?
2. What is causing you anxiety right now?

Sermon Question

1. What are some father figures that have forever marked the heart of our country?
2. After listening to the story of Joseph and Jacob, what is something you watched your father figure do that you wanted to emulate?
3. How would you like to mark the heart of the next generation?

Go Deeper

Can we just be honest for a minute? Change sucks. Like really sucks. And we have all had a fair share of change in 2020. As another change hit our family this week, I looked back on the many changes over the course of my young life and realized... change is actually pretty great. Change gets us out of our comfort zones. Change stretches us. Change often leads to growth.

Colossians 2:6-7 says, "So then, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live your lives in him, rooted and built up in him, strengthened in the faith as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness."

Rarely do I find myself immediately thankful during uncomfortable change, but I always find myself leaning on God and digging my 'roots' in deeper for understanding. When you look back at a few uncomfortable changes, are you thankful? I sure am, and WOW that makes me excited for what God is doing! (Jaden Duncan)
