What is your highlight of Thanksgiving this year?

Neighborly - Daily Devotional

To get the Daily Devotionals delivered to you every morning, text 'dailydevotional' to 97000.

1. In Pastor Sean's 11/19/21 entry, Impossible, he reminds us that we are not invisible to God. Maybe, we are just like the mountains - breathtaking, majestic - but we just don't see ourselves this way? If God makes beautiful things, then you are one of them! What thoughts do you need to remove to start seeing yourself as beautiful and loved? Then Pastor Sean challenges us to live this out: Who can we reach out to let them know they are seen and are breathtaking?
2. In Pastor Ken's 11/17/21 entry, Even Greater Things Than Jesus, he says religion does not make us useful to God. Think about your faith in light of religion and relationship. Where in your life have you discovered that your religion is not useful to God - why not? What did you discover when you switched the narrative to a relationship with God - how then were you useful?

Sermon Notes

Where's God? There's God. - Pastor Jared Herd

Scriptures: Isaiah 40:1-2, 3-5, 12-14, 15-17, 22-26, 27, 28-29, 30-3

1. What impacted or challenged you in today's message?
2. Do you feel like you are constantly climbing up the escalator in your relationship with God? In our determination to climb, what things might we miss as God comes down on the other side?
3. What are your thoughts about a God who moves toward His people? He is Immanuel. What might you need to clear out of the way for His arrival - "make straight a highway" (Isaiah 40:3)?
4. Are you holding God accountable for things He's never promised? According to Isaiah 40, what can you, and should you, hold God accountable to? How does this shift make a difference in your circumstances?

5. How will you be the kind of person who says "There's God" to the world this week? What could you say or do to encourage someone without any hope?

Pray

Our prayer for you this week is from 1 Thessalonians 5:16-19:

May you be joy-filled and have the LORD's praise always on your lips; may praying without ceasing give you life and the LORD's wisdom; may the practice of thankfulness in all circumstances be good ripples cast out into the world; may you know without a doubt that the LORD is good and is for you, and in Christ Jesus He saves you. Happy Thanksgiving!
