To get the Daily Devotionals delivered to you every morning, text 'dailydevotional' to 97000.

1. In Pastor Sean's 11/26/21 entry, The Day After Thanksgiving, he talks about being so full.... physically and spiritually. However, maybe you found yourself full of something else and you are tired. But Jesus is the solution and we can choose to respond to Him in our deepest seasons of hurt or lack. How did you see Jesus in your Thanksgiving? How did He show up? Why did He show up?
2. In Pastor Pam's 11/27/21 entry, Attitude of Gratitude, she opens with a reminder that Thanksgiving can be celebrated every day of the year. After reading the passage Luke 17:11-19, who do you identify with most of the time, the one healed leper that returned with gratitude on his lips, or the other nine? We all have our moments of being the other nine. So, to turn that thinking around, she suggests starting a gratitude journal. Make it a habit of writing down moments and things that you are grateful for. Reflect on these in your quiet time with God and see how they become part of suiting up for the battle of the day!

Sermon Notes

Where's God? There's God. - Pastor Jared Herd

Scriptures: Genesis 3:9, Colossians 1:27-28, Colossians 2:6-7

1. What impacted or challenged you in today's message?
2. In light of Genesis 3:9 where are you in your faith that you need God to meet you?
3. Share a time when someone didn't meet you where you were. In light of Pastor Jared's message, how should they have responded?
4. Who, in your life, has adjusted to your capacity on how to love you? How are you adjusting or not adjusting to others?

Pray

Pray this week that God will help you to see others through His eyes. That God will empower you to love and care for others the way He does. Ask God to make His presence known in every area of life. Thank Him for loving you enough that He sent His son to die for your sins. And lastly, ask God to place on your heart, what He'd like you and your family to give for Impact Offering. Amen.
