'Neighborly' - Daily Devotional

To get the Daily Devotionals delivered to you every morning, text 'dailydevotional' to 97000.

1. In both of Pastor Harry's 2/9 & 2/12/21 entries, Purpose & Passion, he suggested a prayer like this: Ask the Father for Purpose. Ask the Son for Passion. Ask the Spirit for Power! When you think about the three persons of the Godhead, does this help you when you are wondering "Who" to pray to, and what to say to Him?
2. In Pastor Ken's 2/8/21 entry, The Bradley Factor, he said: [The Holy Spirit] will tap into areas you never even knew existed and allow you to do that which you never thought possible. What is being revealed to you this week after praying the way Pastor Harry suggested in question #1? Was it something unexpected, or was it something you and God had already been dreaming about? And how are you and God aligning on it?

Sermon Notes - 'More Than Conquerors'

Part 6 - Pastor Jared Herd

Don't Go Alone, Go Together

Scripture: Romans 8:1, 8:32, 8:37-39; 1 Cor 3:1-5, 21-23

1. Pastor Jared asked the question in the beginning: How can we be Good Neighbors to the world around us? A conqueror goes it alone; more than a conqueror figures out how they can go with people. Which one are you? What might be the fears that would make isolation preferable to community?
2. In these difficult times of division, unbridled emotions, and demands for justice, who are you in "all things"? Are you a condemner or a separator? How does living in the flow of God's Spirit flip that script?

3. Do you have the safe place where you can be authentic and feel comforted by those around you? What characteristics do the people in your safe place have that draws you?
4. Are you that safe, soft landing place for someone else? What do you need to do to be the kind of person who cares about unity, and brings the image of God into your relationships?

Dr. Mark Strauss and Pastor Ken Ingold

Week 5: The Beginning Monarchs: Samuel, Saul and David (1 & 2 Samuel)

1. What are the central themes of this section? What did you learn from this teaching about Israel, Samuel, Saul and David? Was there anything in this teaching that challenged you as a Christ-follower?
2. Read Hannah's prayer in 1 Samuel 2:1-10 and David's prayer in 2 Samuel 7:18:29. What common themes do you see? What can we learn from these prayers...how do they help us to know how to pray?
3. Read 1 Samuel 8. Why does Israel ask for a king? Why do we seek to have people in authority over us? What are the positives? What are the negatives?
4. How would you define David as a person and as a leader? Was David a good leader? What does it mean to be a "man after God's own heart (1 Samuel 13:14)? What qualities are necessary for good leadership today?

Pray

LORD, I want to be one who loves as Jesus loves. I want to shed my self-righteousness and self-centeredness, and I want to become the kind of person who creates and enjoys community with others, even when we are different. Holy Spirit of God, help me to be a good neighbor to my world. In Jesus' name. Amen.
