1. In Middle School Director, Cristina Schmitter's, 3/25/21 entry, An Opportunity to Forgive, she reminds us that forgiveness is not easy. She says that in our "real, on-your-knees, ugly-crying moments of pain... our emotions aren't the guide." The Holy Spirit is the better leader in forgiveness! What can He heal in you this week that opens up an opportunity to pour out His forgiveness to the person on the other side of that hurt?
2. In Pastor Harry's 3/26/21 entry, Connected, he says this: "Israel discovered... if you lose your connection, you lose everything!" Jesus rides into Holy Week to connect with your heart. He wants you to have everything and that is the message of Resurrection. Pastor Harry encourages us this week to: "... see Jesus on that cross for you... see Jesus die for you... see Jesus rise from the dead for you... and invite Him to live with you." What does that vision change for you right now?

Sermon Notes - 'A Better Story - The Parables of Jesus'

Part 4 - Ken Ingold

A Different Kind of Kingdom

Scripture: Matthew 20:1-16

1. In the parable, how does the landowner, who decides to pay everyone the same, represent God and His Kingdom? How does Jesus challenge your faith by showing that He holds everyone as equals? Are you okay with the 5pm workers getting paid the same as the 6am workers?

2. In a world that places importance on achievements and accolades, are you able to love and celebrate people that outperform you?
3. How does living in the Gracious Camp help you with Question #2? What parts of the other two camps (Resentful, Entitlement) do you need to resolve?
4. How does Jesus' response to Peter about the last being first, and the first being last in God's Kingdom change how you would love God and love others out of the Gracious Camp? Is there someone who is last on your list? What will you do?

Pray

It's a big week this week - Holy Week! This is the week that we are reminded of how great the weight on Christ's journey to the cross was. But also of how great the overshadowing victory is in what He was able to accomplish for us in His Resurrection! Lift up your family, your friends, your church, the lost, that Christ would be the King of their hearts!
